AF60 CoP Updates

EVENT PLANNING: AF60 CoP members are now able to upload their planning documents onto the CoP. This capability allows event planners across the Air Force to collaborate and share uncommonly good ideas in a common forum.

Super "Super Bowl" News!

Tune in on 4 Feb to see the USAF Thunderbirds salute AF60 and fly over Dolphin Stadium to kick off Super Bowl XLI

Congratulations and special thanks to Col Richard A Klumpp and Mr. Jim Malachowski at Vance AFB for uploading their superb AF 60th Game Plan to the CoP! You'll find their document in the "AF 60th Planning Documents" folder. We invite you to likewise share your plans with the members of the AF60th Community!

CoP ALERTS: You may choose to receive an email alert whenever an item is updated in the CoP. Simply open any folder, then click on the satellite icon next to the file you wish to monitor.

PHOTO: We encourage you to use the CoP to share information with your AF60 peers! Upload photos, after action reports and other relevant feedback from your AF60 events today to help others plan tomorrow's commemorative events! These files should be uploaded to the "Event Feedback" folder.

Seymour Johnson AFB is commemorating AF60! To recognize this historic time throughout the year, the base dedicated the cover of their Base Guide to the 60th Anniversary—a "ringing" success!

ANG

In its January issue, On Guard magazine launched its monthly tribute to the AF 60th Anniversary. This piece, which will be featured throughout 2007, includes the AF 60th logo and a brief update on ANG commemorative activity.

In addition to commemorating at the HQ ANG level—some states are recognizing the 60th in very unique ways!

On 16 Jan, in honor of the 60th Anniversary of the North Dakota Air National Guard

(the Happy Hooligans) and to commemorate the final flight of the North Dakota ANG's F-16's, North Dakota's governor proclaimed January 16, 2007, to be "Happy Hooligan's Day"

On 27-28 Jan, the Minnesota ANG brought AF60 to the Government on Display event in the Mall of America.

Air Force Memorial Events

On 1 Mar, the AF60 Flag will be raised over the Air Force Memorial. This event marks the historic date in 1946 when General Hap Arnold was appointed Commander, Army Air Forces. The AF60 Flag will fly over the Memorial throughout the commemoration period in 2007.

If you are interested in scheduling an event

(promotion, retirement, etc...) at the Memorial—please contact Air Force Memorial Foundation:

AF60 SPOTLIGHT

Air Force Bands

You've watched the AF60 Heritage video, you've organized an AF60 event — now LISTEN to AF history in the making! Throughout 2007 – be sure to take time and go to a Air Force Band concert in your local area.

Air Force bands have a rich history of serving our nation, honoring our heritage, and communicating AF excellence. This year their performances/programs are dedicated to honoring AF60!!

The Air Force has 14 bands throughout the world – and they are building great AF60 momentum. Not only did the USAFA Band perform in the Macy's Thanksgiving Day parade, but each band has identified unique ways to recognize the Anniversary. From highlighting the 60th during the 2007 Guest Artist Series in DC to staging a "Heritage to Horizons" Summer Concert Series in Germany—Air Force bands are making this Anniversary historic.

On 10-13 Jan, 25 USAF Band members from six different regional bands represented the AF at the International Association for Jazz Education in NYC. They showcased the AF60 commemoration in their exhibit and entertained the audience of approx. 8,000 educators, musicians, media and students from more than 45 countries.

Check for upcoming concerts on PA's Communication Tracking Order or on the AF bands website: www.af.mil/library/band/.
